POSITION:

Climate Change Intern (Phenology) (1)

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT:

Dates of employment are June 1, 2020 – August 7, 2020 (10 weeks, 400 hours). Rate of pay $10.10 per hour.

SUPERVISION:

The intern will report to Rob Croll, Climate Change Program Coordinator.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: This position will conduct work on three projects within the climate change program and will include a mix of fieldwork, cultural and office activities:

- 1) Phenology project (70%): The intern will work with other staff members to visit field sites and collect phenological data for 10 culturally important plant species under the direction of the Climate Change Scientist. This includes field data collection training, map reading, using a GPS device, recording phenological observations using the KoboToolbox app, native plant identification and basic ethnobotany skills, photography, and field equipment inventory, maintenance, and management.
- 2) Seed Bank project (15%): The intern will work with other staff members to scout potential ash and paper birch seed trees, practice seed collection techniques, and assist in seed collection. This fieldwork will involve map reading, basic plant identification, learning about seed phenology, practicing seed collection methods, collecting field data using the KoboToolbox app, and using a GPS device.
- 3) Traditional Ecological Knowledge (TEK) collection and transcription (15%): The intern will focus on outreach to Ojibwe tribal members, scheduling and carrying out TEK interviews and transcribing and summarizing TEK interviews under the direction of the Climate Change TEK Outreach Specialist. Intern will receive training in culturally appropriate interviewing techniques, collection, preservation, use and protection of TEK/Indigenous knowledge and using Elan transcription software.

The intern will also participate in GLIFWC orientation and training during the first week of the internship, which will include first aid/CPR training. Other activities scattered throughout the internship are the annual healing circle run, canoe building, Sandy Lake memorial ceremony, Board of Commissioners meeting, and preparing a scientific presentation for the Voigt Intertribal Task Force and Board of Commissioners.

QUALIFICATIONS: Interest in plants, the outdoors, and conducting fieldwork despite adverse conditions (heat, insects, mud, etc.). Interest in Ojibwemowen and Traditional Ecological Knowledge. Must be in good physical condition, possess a valid driver's license and be insurable under GLIFWC policies. Good organizational skills, independent, and detail-oriented. Native American Studies or Natural Resources students preferred. Native American preference, but all qualified applicants will be considered.

2020 Summer Internship Openings

The Great Lakes Indian Fish and Wildlife Commission (GLIFWC) is pleased to announce available internships for its 2020 GLIFWC Summer Internship Program. Through this internship program, college students will work one-on-one with their GLIFWC mentors in various divisions and learn about necessary coursework, college degrees, and trainings which result in gainful employment in a multitude of careers, including natural resource and stewardship careers with tribes. Also, interns will participate in a multitude of traditional Anishinaabe cultural events and learn about the importance of treaty reserved rights to the Anishinaabe people and their history in preserving these rights.

Internship Information:

GLIFWC internships will consist of 40 hours per week for 10 weeks (total of 400 hours), scheduled for June 1st- August 7th, 2020 (unless noted differently on an internship position description). All internships will be hosted at the GLIFWC Main Office, located on the Bad River Reservation, WI. Some internships will require travel within the Minnesota, Wisconsin, and Michigan areas, as well as some overnight travel. See the available internship position descriptions at <http://www.glifwc.org> in the “GLIFWC News & Upcoming Events” box under “Employment”. Note: candidates are able to apply for multiple internships, please ensure that all required paperwork is submitted for EACH internship position (i.e. a cover letter for EACH internship position applied for). Applicants who apply for multiple internships may undergo multiple interviews. Finally, the selection process may lead to applicants being offered a different GLIFWC internship.

Selected interns will be paid $10.10 per hour during their GLIFWC internship. If needed, housing may be available. In previous years, GLIFWC has provided housing in a local college dormitory.

Eligible applicants must meet the following:

- Be an incoming or continuing student that is accepted and/or enrolled full time at a college/university for Fall 2020 semester;
- Possess proficient verbal and written communication skills;
- Have a strong interest in working with Native American tribes;
- Be willing to travel as part of internship, if required.

To apply, applicants must:

- Submit a cover letter that includes email address and telephone number;
 - If applying for more than one GLIFWC internship, the applicant must complete a separate cover letter for each internship application, noting a specific internship position within the cover letter.

- Submit a resume outlining education, work experience, certifications, community involvement, and other pertinent information;
- Submit the following, dependent on classification:
 - 2020 High School Graduate: provide verification of acceptance at a college/university for Fall 2020 (examples: enrollment verification or Fall 2020 class schedule);
 - Continuing College/University Students: provide unofficial transcript(s) verifying Spring 2020 and Fall 2020 enrollment;
 - Graduating College/University Students: provide unofficial transcript(s) verifying Spring 2020 enrollment.

American Indian preference will be applied consistent with GLIFWC policies and Federal Indian Self Determination and Education Assistance Act (PL 93-638)

Applicants that submit all required above documentation will receive a confirmation email including a link to an online survey with requested additional information (i.e. tribal affiliation, first aid certification, housing needs, internship preferences, etc.), to be completed within 3 days of the confirmation email. A complete application will include: cover letter, resume, transcripts, and completed online survey. Applications without the completed online survey will not be considered for an internship position.
