CLOSING DATE: Open Until Filled

SUPERVISION: Reports to GLIFWC Warden and Creel Manager

CLASSIFICATION: Temporary, Part-time. Approximately, 15-30 days (April – May)

DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES

Under the supervision and direction of assigned GLIFWC Warden(s) and Creel Manager, Creel Workers are responsible monitoring and recording spring fishing harvest activities at their nightly assigned lake/river.

1. Count, measure, and sex the various species of fish harvested on their assigned body of water,
2. Issue fishing permits (spearing, netting, snagging) to tribal harvesters,
3. Complete nightly catch reports and other forms as directed, and turn them in at the end of your shift to the Creel Manager and/or GLIFWC Warden,
4. Monitor the landings and report all harvester harassment incidents and their threats to law enforcement,
5. Maintain a safe and clean working environment and pick up all litter around the boat landing prior to leaving for the night,
6. Help disinfect boats as they come off the water to help protect our waters from aquatic invasive species,
7. Document daily starting and ending time and mileage,
8. Perform other related duties as assigned or as directed.
QUALIFICATIONS

1. Applicants must be able to identify various species of fish and must be comfortable touching and picking up fish,
2. Must have legible handwriting,
3. Must be able to follow verbal and written directions with little to no direct supervision,
4. Must be able to work nightly (6:00 P.M. – 2:00 A.M.) for approximately two weeks straight,
5. Must have a valid driver's license and vehicle with up-to-date registration (mileage will be reimbursed at 58.5 cents per mile and collected bi-weekly with timesheets),

Indian preference will be applied consistent with GLIFWC policies and the Federal Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Download an application packet from our website www.glifwc.org located under the “Employment” tab of our homepage, or by picking up an application packet in-person, from your local tribal registration office or GLIFWC Warden.

Applicants must submit their completed application packets, including two forms of identification (tribal members must submit a copy of their tribal identification card to claim tax exemption) and proof of their Covid-19 vaccination to your local GLIFWC Warden.
