Ikwewag Oganawendaanaawaa Manoomin

Project funded in part by an America the Beautiful Challenge Grant from the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation. Anishinaabe women are the original caretakers of manoomin (wild rice). GLIFWC's 2024 poster by Ojibwe artist Amber Waboose, a member of the Batchewana First Nation in Ontario, depicts this way of life with Anishinaabekweg (women) observing, learning, and teaching about manoomin growing in the river. Ikwewag Oganawendaanaawaa Manoomin means "the women take care of the rice" in Ojibwemowin. Go to glifwc.org to order a copy of the poster or additional copies of this calendar.
